The rapid development of economic globalization and regional economic integration and much closer China-ASEAN strategic partnership and in particular, the realization of China-ASEAN Free Trade Area have made it an urgent task to promote bilateral economic cooperation with depth and scope so that Pan-Beibu Gulf area can once again gain the world's attention. Blessed with unique geographical location, abundant natural resources, sound cooperation foundation and promising prospect, Pan-Beibu Gulf area is attracting more and more attention as the bond linking China with ASEAN by sea.
