ABOUT

To approach global financial centres trends coming along with new challenges and opportunities, maintain keen insight on China's financial reform, as well as accelerate the development of financial centres and financial sector, the Z/Yen Group, China Development Institute (CDI), Shenzhen Municipal Financial Services Office and Shenzhen Economic Daily are going to co-host Global Financial Centre Index 18 Launch: Financial Centres Development Summit in Shenzhen, China on September 23, 2015.

GFCI 18 and CDI CFCI 7 will be released on the conference. The Global Financial Centre Index (GFCI), initiated by the Z/Yen Group, provides profiles, ratings and rankings for financial centres and it has been instrumental in suggesting future strategies for world's major financial centres. The summit will witness its first launch in China. As for China's Financial Centres Index (CFCI), it is compiled by CDI, a leading think tank based in Shenzhen, China, and gives comprehensive analysis and assessment of 31 financial centres' development in China.

The summit themed on "RMB Internationalization and Financial Centres Development", will be an ideal dialogue platform for senior decision-makers, financial leaders and economic experts to share international experience and to explore the new trends of RMB internationalization and off-shore yuan centres promotion.
